

www.collaborative-ventures.com

What is Collaborative Ventures?

Collaborative Ventures is a business resource group consisting of the Charlotte area's leading entrepreneurs and sales executives. We represent a multitude of professions and offer quality business services such as:

- 401K Rollover Specialist
- Accounting
- Banking
- Building Services
- Business Consulting
- Conference / Event Planning
- Event Planning
- Healthcare
- Hospitality
- Insurance
- IT Training
- Marketing
- Ministry
- Promotional Products
- Real Estate & Development
- SendOutCards
- Telecommunications
- Web Development

What is their purpose?

Collaborative Ventures (CV) purpose is to promote business development, business diversity, identify business opportunities in the Charlotte region, and encourage educational and social development for the economic success of its members.

How do we accomplish our goals?

- By strategically targeting and sharing business leads and information with our members.
- Networking with other business resource groups and professional organizations.
- Broadcasting potential business opportunities to our members.

How can we benefit your business?

We offer a full range of business / consulting services for clients to select as many as they need to fulfill their business objectives. We collaborate on business projects to help our customers save time, money, and resources when needing professional business services. By utilizing our services we guarantee a quality experience, and we are committed to adhering to the highest ethical and customer service standards in our respective industry.

How can you support us?

If you are a business owner and need quality business/ consulting services, call Collaborative Ventures. If you are relocating to the Charlotte area, and are planning to launch a business in the near future, call Collaborative Ventures.

For More Information:

Collaborative Ventures

1332 Millbank Rd

Matthews, North Carolina 28104

P: (704) 221-6507

E: info@collaborative-ventures.com

W: www.collaborative-ventures.com